Four-H events begin Saturday.

A spray-paint artist, mechanical bull and kids' ranch rodeo are new events featured at the Dawson County Fair which officially kicks off Saturday.

The fair is July 10-18.

Artist Matt Sorensen of Blackfoot, ID, who is known for his "rattle tag" art with spray paint, will perform one-hour shows for the public at noon, 2:30 p.m., 5 p.m., 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday near the grandstand.

Mechanical bull rides for $5 will also be offered by the grandstand on Friday in addition to kids' ranch events Saturday.

A carnival begins Wednesday, July 14, in the evening with family night and continues every evening through Sunday, July 18.

Dawson County Ag Society events coordinator and office manager Ann Johnson described the fair this year as "really fun with new events and great food including traditional fair food."

Johnson said 43 vendors are lined up in the commercial building who will sell merchandise such as cowgirl accessories and offer information on such agencies as the Dawson County Parent-Child Center.

A long-standing restaurant at the fair—the 4-H Cafe—will be open Saturday, July 10, from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. ; Wednesday, July 14, from 9 a.m.-7:30 p.m.; Thursday through Saturday, July 15-17, from 8:30 a.m.-7:30 p.m., and Sunday, July 18, from 8 a.m.-6 p.m.
