

Street spooks

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 04 November 2010 21:51 -

FRIDAY TRICK OR TREAT: Gothenburg businesses opened their doors to youngsters Friday afternoon during the annual Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Munchkin Masquerade. Temperatures topped out at 70 degrees which was a welcome relief compared to last year's masquerade that was postponed because of a snowstorm. Niki Lauby of Farm Bureau Insurance is pictured (left) handing out treats.