

Explosion again damages elevator

Written by Gothenburg Times
Wednesday, 29 December 2010 20:36 -

An explosion at All Points Cooperative grain elevator shortly after 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 29, rocked downtown Gothenburg. Damage, which is currently being assessed by a Nebraska state fire marshal, appears to be less than what occurred just over two years ago when over $7 million in repairs were needed to put the facility back in operation. The main photo shows damage to two of the south tubes in the main elevator.

