

Homecoming fever hits Gothenburg High School

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Thursday, 08 October 2009 13:51 -

SLUGFEST: Members of the Swede football team put some muscle into sledge hammers Friday afternoon as they beat two old dryers—symbolizing the Broken Bow Indians—on a trailer during the annual downtown homecoming parade. Unfortunately, the Swedes gave up a close game to the Indians on the gridiron later that evening—losing 14-13. Pictured are, l-r: Levi Bahe, Tommy France, Nolan Wilson and Jeron Seimer.

