The Nebraska Department of Roads has released its road plan for fiscal year 2013 (July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013).

Only one Gothenburg project appears on the list, bridge work south of Gothenburg on Highway 47 at an estimated cost of $602,000.

Other projects in the area include the resurfacing of 13.9 miles of Highway 30 between Cozad and Lexington at an estimated cost of $6,694,000.

Interstate 80 between Brady and Maxwell will get crack seal improvements costing about $171,000.

The five-year plan—FY2014 through FY2018—shows workers will be busy in the Gothenburg area. Projects and estimated costs include:

Hwy. 30 west of Gothenburg, 11.9 miles of resurfacing, $8,588,000

Hwy. 30, Gothenburg to Cozad, 9.3 miles of resurfacing, $7,541,000

Hwy. 47, Platte River bridge repair, $2,425,000

Hwy. 47, Gothenburg to Custer County line, 7.1 miles of milling, resurfacing, $4,212,000

I-80 westbound, Gothenburg west 7.1 miles, milling, resurfacing, $1,084,000
