

Swimming pool closes early

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Monday, 13 August 2012 15:45 -

Anyone planning a cool plunge into the city pool this week will have to wait until next year.

Because the main circulating pump quit working Sunday, the facility was shut down two days earlier than planned.

The pool was supposed to close for the season Tuesday.

City administrator Bruce Clymer said the pump will not be repaired until next spring, before the 2013 swim season begins.