

Tumbles, Trophies and more at Dawson County Fair:

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Thursday, 16 August 2012 13:17 -

Slippery swine time

New to the Dawson County Fair this year was pig wrestling, an event which attracted many onlookers last Thursday night to an outdoor arena at the Lexington fairgrounds.

A porker was released and teams had two minutes to catch the pig and put it in a barrel in the ring full of mud, water and baby oil. Some teams dressed up and had names like the Dukes of Dawson (pictured). They are front (clockwise) l-r: Heath Keiser, Kole Berke of Cozad, Patrick Peterson and Evan Peterson. A monetary award was given to the top three teams.

Tumbles, Trophies and more at Dawson County Fair:

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 16 August 2012 13:17 -

Tumbles, Trophies and more at Dawson County Fair:

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 16 August 2012 13:17 -

Tumbles, Trophies and more at Dawson County Fair:

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 16 August 2012 13:17 -

Tumbles, Trophies and more at Dawson County Fair:

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 16 August 2012 13:17 -

