

Hospital board approves contract for GMH head

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Friday, 31 August 2012 13:50 -

The contract of Mick Brant, selected by a search committee as chief executive officer for Gothenburg Memorial Hospital, was approved by the GMH board at a meeting last Thursday.

Brant's contract was approved unanimously by the board.

Brant, who is the CEO of Grace Cottage Hospital in Townshend, VT, will start duties at GMH on Nov. 19.