

Four receive FFA's highest degree

Written by Gothenburg Times
Friday, 16 November 2012 15:40 -

Four 2011 graduates of Gothenburg High School received an American FFA degree at the national convention in October.

Nebraska FFA mebm

FFA adviser Dan Scherer said the degree is the highest honor and award that a FFA member can receive on the national level.

“These kids had to show extraordinary effort to receive this honor,” Scherer said.

To get the degree, recipients must:

have received their state FFA degree complete 540 hours of ag ed classes have graduated high school maintain a well-kept record book for four years, demonstrating management tools on projects have earned more than $7,500 or worked at least 2,250 hours

Four receive FFA's highest degree

Written by Gothenburg Times
Friday, 16 November 2012 15:40 -

have at least a 3.0 GPA

have volunteered more than 50 community service hours have been a valuable member of the FFA, community and school by participating in at least 10 school and community activities.