

Collision on Highway 30

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Thursday, 23 May 2013 16:49 -

Two injured: Two people were taken to Gothenburg Memorial Hospital Tuesday by the local rescue unit following a collision about two miles east of town on Highway 30.

Dawson Co. Sheriff's Office officials said 19-year-old Jordan Nicewonger of Lexington was driving west in a 2000 Nissan X-Terra when he crossed the center line and struck an eastbound 2012 GMC Terrain driven by Barbara Pottsman, 51, of Gothenburg. Both were treated for non life-threatening injuries.

