

Unwanted moisture

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Thursday, 30 May 2013 15:51 -

TOWN PELTED: Anyone outside Saturday night likely sought shelter when golf ball-sized hail and larger pounded areas of Gothenburg, damaging vehicles, roofs and more. In addition to hail, 1.60 inches of rain fell during the storm, according to local weather observer Dan Frerichs. Storms Sunday and Monday also brought much-needed rain to the area.