

Hoods up in the park; Car show attracts 157 vehicles ready to Register

Written by Austin Benson

Wednesday, 03 July 2013 21:35 -

Vic and Sharon Larson from Eustis were the owners of one of the 157 cars surrounding Ehmen Park last Saturday.

The annual Show For A Cure raises money for cancer research. The Larsons pulled in just in time to shine up their 1935 Chevy before registration hours ended. There were 18 awards given out including the Top Ten which is selected by registrants. Awards included the top manufacturer, the top classification in street, rat, pickup and motorcycle.

Hoods up in the park; Car show attracts 157 vehicles ready to Register

Written by Austin Benson

Wednesday, 03 July 2013 21:35 -

