

Stepping up stadium safety

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Friday, 30 August 2013 14:14 - Last Updated Friday, 30 August 2013 14:16

New additions: Swede fans who didn't attend last Friday's scrimmage will get a chance to see upgrades to the football stadium this Friday when Gothenburg takes on Ogallala. Paulsen Inc. of Cozad widened the inside steps of the stadium, which were painted safety yellow, and added hand rails for safety. School officials said the stadium lost one seat per row on the outside section to accommodate the larger steps. Patrons requested the changes, they said.