

Students create gingerbread houses

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Thursday, 26 December 2013 14:59 -

Yummy holiday creations

Intricate process: Each year before the holiday break, students at Dudley Elementary participate in Christmas activities. This year, third graders built gingerbread houses on Dec. 17. Right, Ariel Hulse lines her creation with licorice. Left, Trevor Galas cvarefully places marshmallows on his home. Students were dismissed for break last Friday and will return to classes on Monday, Jan. 6. (Photos by Austin Benson)

