

Wind whips up property damage

Written by Austin Benson

Friday, 24 January 2014 14:49 -

Tumbleweeds, blown over dumpsters and lots of dust were a common sight last Thursday when wind gusts in the area measured in the 40 to 50 mph range. Several houses in Gothenburg sustained damage. Top, the wind destroyed a 30-foot section of fence at 1207 Avenue L. Left, shingles on a roof from a house on the corner of 18th Street and Avenue B were torn away and blown into the street.

