

Underage drinking to be addressed Friday

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Thursday, 27 March 2014 14:49 -

Region II Human Services invites community members to discuss prevention programs that address underage drinking among youths aged 12 to 20 years of age in Dawson County.

A meeting is scheduled Friday, from 10-11 a.m., at the Gothenburg Public Library.

The goal is to help make a safer environment for young people in the community.

For more information, call Shannon Sell at 308-534-6029 ext. 152.

Sell is prevention system director and behavioral health disaster response coordinator of Region II Human Services.