

Pets parade at library Story Hour

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 27 March 2014 14:53 -

Having fun: Kids participating in four different sessions at the Gothenburg Public Library during Story Hour on Thursdays colored, sang and danced, listened to a story and interacted with children's librarian Linda Swan and her puppet, Shaggy the Dog. Left, last Thursday, children marched around the library in a Pet Parade. Reagan Langlely enjoys the sunshine as she carries her stuffed puppy during the parade.

