TWO honored: A Gothenburg High School senior, and her teacher, were honored last Wednesday at North Platte Community College. Rebecca Anderson received a plaque for being an Academic All Star, along with other high school seniors in the area with high academic records. She named her high school ag teacher, Dan Scherer, as her most influential teacher. Scherer also received a plaque. Pictured are, l-r: Ryan Purdy (Mid-Plains Community College president), Scherer, Anderson and Peter Rogers (North Platte Telegraph publisher). The event is sponsored by the Telegraph, NPCC and the North Platte Area Chamber and Development Corporation.
