

A visit to Baldwin Filters

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Wednesday, 02 September 2009 21:36 -

TALKING FILTERS: Nebraska Lt. Gov. Rick Sheehy (left) visited the Gothenburg Baldwin Filters manufacturing plant on Aug. 19.

Plant manager David Haynes showed him the plant's new urethane flex line. Haynes said the flex line is a new production line that has been installed in the Gothenburg plant to produce a new design of some filters that are produced locally as well as some new products.