Ballmer, Kucera receive conference honors.

DONIPHAN—Gothenburg's first team of trapshooters placed eighth overall at the 41st annual Cornhusker State Trapshoot April 29-May 1 at Doniphan.

Over the three days, 1,790 shooters competed for awards and scholarships.

Gothenburg's team of Alex Schultz, Alex Ballmer, Austin Kucera, Levi Bahe and Nolan Wilson combined for eighth in the state with a combined 16-yard and handicap score of 875-of-1,000 shots.

The team was ninth in the handicap division with a total of 416-of-500 and 13th in the 16-yard shoot with 459-of-500.

Ballmer had Gothenburg's highest individual overall score at 182-of-200.

Following the state shoot, conference participants made up the final conference shoot of the season since it was previously delayed due to weather in April.
