Gothenburg High School coaches presented Swede athletes with awards and honored all letter winners during a banquet on Tuesday.

Highlighting the event was the announcement of the 2010 special award winners, including 12-sport honorees.

Mark Hilderbrand and Emily Max received the Dutch Zorn Award. The honor is presented annually to the top three-sport senior letter winner.

Hilderbrand lettered in football, basketball and track while Max is a letter winner in volleyball, basketball and track.

Landen Haake earned the Jack Logan award for football excellence. The award is given to an outstanding senior two-year football letterman.

Haake was a running back and defensive back for the 2010 Swede football team. He rushed for 1,180 yards last fall and finished his career with 2,940 rushing yards to finish No. 2 on the school's all-time chart in career yards.

The 12-sport award is presented to any high school athlete who has been involved in a sport during each season of his or her high school career.

Six seniors qualified: Mark Hilderbrand, Landen Haake, Patrick Reeves, Tommy France, Derek Franzen, Joel Teahon, Ali Abramson, Emily Max, Kira Peterson and Tabitha Paul.
