

Golfers give their best effort

Written by Deb Egenberger
Wednesday, 15 September 2010 21:53 -

LEXINGTON—The Gothenburg golf team had it's best combined performance so far this season at the Lexington Invite on Friday despite finishing ninth of 10 teams.

"The competition was of a higher quality than at Broken Bow," coach Jim Henke said of the meet the day before.

With identical scores of 109, Heidi Teahon and Jourdan Matthies led the Swedes to a 471 team total.

That is 18 strokes better than their previous team best.

Teahon and Matthies were seven strokes from a medal but each earned their personal best individual scores, Henke said.

McCook easily won the team title with a combined total of 361. Lexington was second at 425.

Top medalist of the meet was Abrea Hernandez of Lexington carding an 81.

Gothenburg sophomore Kristin Bartlett improved her personal best by eight strokes while Saraid Baca and Crystal Moore continued to gain experience with good efforts, Henke said.

The golfers hosted their own invite on Tuesday and will play next at the Dawson County meet in Cozad at 1 p.m. on Friday.