Swede golfers recorded their best tournament score of the season last week on their home course during the Gothenburg Invite, improving their total by 15 strokes.

The accomplishment of carding 456 was overshadowed, though, by the domination of Scottsbluff and McCook, said Swede coach Jim Henke.

The Bearcats and the Bison each had four players in the top 10, taking first and second respectively in the team race with 346 and 349.

Scottsbluff earned the first three finishes followed by McCook with places four through six.

Kate Kryzjanowski of Scottsbluff shot a three-under-par 33 on the back nine to finish one under with 71 to capture the gold medal.

Gothenburg was 10th amid the stiff competition.

Senior Anna Boson earned the low score for the Swedes with 105.

Fellow senior Jourdan Matthies had trouble with sand traps but battled her way to 116.

Henke said sophomore Kristin Bartlett showed improvement
