For a while Thursday, the Gothenburg-Cozad softball rematch was a comedy of errors—except that it wasn't too funny for either team.

Each squad committed six errors. The Haymakers gave up three consecutive runs on wild pitches.

Gothenburg killed several opportunities with base-running mistakes. The Swedes made the most of other chances, though, to carve out an 8-5 win.

Cozad fell to Gothenburg 10-5 in the Swedes' third game of the season.

Coach Roger Neujahr said his team seems to feel added pressure at home.

Add to that the parent's night recognition, the special "pink out" activities in support of cancer research and the regular competitive nature of a Swede-Haymaker contest.

"You could just feel the tension with them," he said.

A couple of errors provided Cozad a 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning.
