COZAD—Despite a dismal record, Cozad's girls had some moments of greatness last week in Gothenburg's head-to-head match on the Haymakers' parents night.

Still, those moments were too few and far between to stand up to the Swede fire power at the net on Oct. 23.

Gothenburg hammered the Haymakers 25-12, 25-16, 25-8.

"I felt like we controlled the game throughout," said coach Mary Clark. "The girls played with a lot of energy and that's how we play best."

The Swedes never let the Haymakers string together more than a couple points the whole night.

"Before the game, we stressed to the girls to play our style of ball," Clark said. "We wanted them to keep the tempo up and keep swinging because we are usually successful when we stay on the attack."
