Gothenburg golfers displayed improved play Thursday at the Ogallala Invitational.

The Swedes had a season-low 371 while placing eighth in the tournament. McCook earned the team title with a 313, beating runner-up Alliance by 30 strokes.

Eric Linnemeyer paced the Swedes with an 89. He opened with a 44 and finished with a 45.

Adam Speck and Drake Brand were close behind with 90 and 91, respectively.

Gering's Austin Kaufman was the meet medalist with a 71.
