Swedes keeping eyes on state.

HASTINGS—The four-team round-robin dual meet in Hastings on Saturday was not what Gothenburg wrestling coach Eric Manstedt thought he was getting into.

Still, a team championship and six undefeated wrestlers gives the Swedes a good dose of confidence as they face the final two meets of the season before state.

“It wasn’t as tough a meet as we would have hoped for at this point in the season,” Manstedt said, “but I guess it gives our kids a little mental break.”

Of the six wrestlers who finished the day unscathed, only one competed in three matches. The rest had at least one forfeit.

“The kids would honestly rather wrestle than win by forfeit,” Manstedt said. “That’s a whole different culture than we’ve had on this team in the past.”

Sophomore Bryce Eggleston earned victories in all three matches at 130 pounds with one major decision and two pins.

The others to go undefeated were Mitch Spiegel (103), Tanner Schwanz (119), Justin Larson (125), Chris Hyde (135) and Tommy France (215).

No individual medals were awarded, Manstedt said.

The meet served as a warm-up for the Southwest Conference meet on Saturday in Valentine.

Manstedt said SWC will be a tough contest with solid individuals competing from all seven schools.

“Cozad, Ainsworth and Minden will all put up plenty of team points,” he said. “I just want my kids to compete hard and stay the course toward state.”

Three weights will be stacked, Manstedt said. The 135, 160 and 215 classes are loaded with good wrestlers.

“Those who come out on top will earn valuable points for their teams,” the coach said.

Gothenburg will have its share of targets too.

“We’ll just have to see how the weights stack up,” Manstedt said. “Getting kids in the finals will be important.”

Wrestling is set to begin at 11 a.m.

“We want to see our best wrestling in the last two weeks of the season,” Manstedt said. “We haven’t peaked yet. We don’t want to get to the top of the curve until districts. Getting to state is the goal.”
