Brady students were recognized for their achievements in school activities throughout the 2011-12 year during an activities award banquet on May 10.

Athletic letters and special activity recognition were presented.

Students were also honored for their achievements in the classroom during an academic honors night on May 15.

Six students were inducted into the school's chapter of National Honor Society. They were Makenzie Nansel, Dalton Simants, Sydney Widick, Carissa Rayburn, Donnie Trisdale and Brittney Christophersen.

Special awards were also presented to senior students who excelled academically.

Tyler Egenberger was honored as the only Brady student to receive the all-conference all-academic award based on ACT score.

Career academy awards were also given to three students who completed college courses and job shadows in specific areas. Egenberger was awarded the career academy in health sciences while Micah Most earned the career academy designation in information technology and Maggie Burke received the career academy in education award.

Following is a list of students in grades 7-12 and awards they received:
