Six Brady Eagle football players have received post-season recognition from coaches of teams in the D2-8 football district.

Junior running back Brad Ward earned the highest honor, being voted to the first team all-district on offense.

Ward led the Eagles this fall with 1,207 yards rushing on 183 carries averaging 134 yards per game. He also tied the school record for number of touchdowns in a season with 23.

Ward earned honorable mention last season.

Ethann Barnes, Dalton Riedel and Corbin Blede each earned second-team honors.

Barnes, a senior, was an offensive lineman for the Eagles while Riedel and Blede received recognition on defense.

Riedel, a junior, plays the defensive end position and Blede, a senior, is a linebacker.

Juniors Kyle Pohlman and Christian Arterburn earned honorable mention.

Teams in the district are Anselmo-Merna, Ansley, Brady, Maywood, Loomis and Sumner-Eddyville-Miller.
