The Brady High School one-act play titled "Imperfect Proposal" finished fourth among six teams at the Gothenburg Play Production Invite on Nov. 13.

Junior Donnie Trisdale, who portrays a nose-y old man named Will in the play, earned a medal as the best supporting actor of all six teams.

York was first in Brady's bracket, followed by Wauneta-Palisade and Ravenna.

Loup City's play, "Loving Lives," took first in the other seven-team bracket.

The event included more than 400 students in the 13 plays and each production received feedback from judges.

In addition to Trisdale, seven Brady cast members received outstanding performer honors from the judges. They were Cole Viter, Mikaela Eckholt, Kaleb Arterburn, Dakota Terry, Zach Mann, Britney Christophersen and Chris Porter.
