

Brady Days 2013 comes to town Aug. 2-4

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Wednesday, 17 July 2013 23:04 -

Old events, sprinkled with some new, are on tap for Brady's annual celebration set for Friday, Aug. 2, through Sunday, Aug. 4, in Brady.

Two parades, turtle races, free food and games will return as well as a mini Chautauqua, a daddy-daughter and mother-son dance, photo contest and other events to keep the celebration fresh.

The schedule is as follows:

FRIDAY, AUG. 2

4:30 p.m., sidewalk chalk art must be completed downtown and apple pies delivered to the community center.

6 p.m.—Kids and pets on parade, lineup in front of the school.

6:30 p.m.—Family night bur-gers and hotdogs at the community center; includes hotdog eating contest, sidewalk chalk prizes, pie prizes, photo contest display and Methodist Church choir performance.

7 p.m.—Ice cream social.

8 p.m.—Daddy/Daughter & Mother/Son formal dance at the tennis court.

Brady Days 2013 comes to town Aug. 2-4

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Wednesday, 17 July 2013 23:04 -

9 p.m.—Teen dance at the tennis court with Complete Music; movie at the school football field, “Escape From Planet Earth.”

PHOTO CONTEST NEW EVENT

For the first time, the Brady Days celebration will offer a photography contest. Only 8x10 or 8x12 unframed prints should be submitted. Photos may be color or black and white. Please tape entrant's name, address and phone number to the back of each photograph, along with where the photo was taken. Photos should be delivered to the Brady Community Center before 9 a.m. on July 29. Photos will be judged and prizes awarded in each category, as well as best of show. All photos will be displayed in the Community Center during the three-day Brady Days festival. For more information, contact Deb Cogenberger at cogenberger@netnet.net or call 308-539-5791.

Entries will be accepted from

- Professional or amateur photographers of all ages.
- Photographs, both current and historical, will be accepted in four judged categories:
 - People—The faces of residents past and present, young and old.
 - Outdoor activities—Hunting, fishing, water sports, anything outside.
 - Landmarks—Historical or significant areas of interest such as churches, houses, businesses.
 - Nature—Wildlife, vegetation, landscapes, skies.

All photos must be of events, people or scenes associated with Brady.

SATURDAY, AUG. 3

7-9 a.m.—Breakfast at the community center.

9 a.m.—“Old Brady Comes to Life” historical memorabilia display at the school.

9:30 a.m.—Parade lineup beginning on Popleton Street in front of the school.

10:30 a.m.—Parade.

10:30 a.m.-3 p.m.—Car show downtown.

11:30 a.m.—MedAir Flight-for-Life helicopter at the baseball field following the parade; lunch at the community center; penny carnival at the park; cookie decorating at the park; laser tag at the park, slip-n-slide at the park; vendor tables on the bank lawn, free and open to anyone.

1 p.m.—3-on-3 mud volleyball at the park, sign up at the Hitchin' Post; horseshoes in the park.

Brady Days 2013 comes to town Aug. 2-4

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Wednesday, 17 July 2013 23:04 -

1-4 p.m.—Mechanical bull at the tennis courts.

2 p.m.—Turtle races in the circle downtown; bingo at the Community Center.

3 p.m.—Tug-of-war at the park.

3:30 p.m.—“Old Brady Comes to Life” character portrayals at the school.

5 p.m.—Firemen’s barbecue at the community center.

6 p.m.-midnight—Mechanical bull downtown.

9 p.m.—Street dance.

SUNDAY, AUG 4

7 a.m.—5K & 10K Road Run and Fun Walk starting at the school parking lot.

8:30 a.m.—Worship service/breakfast at the Community Center.

10 a.m. Softball tournament.

Noon—Community potluck at the park, bring food to share, table service and chairs.

Brady Days 2013 comes to town Aug. 2-4

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Wednesday, 17 July 2013 23:04 -
