DANIELLE GUTHERLESS CHEVAS SHAW

SIERRA QUADHAMER MICAH MOST

Two make repeat trips.

MERNA—Four Brady High School students, including three district champions, qualified for next week's state speech meet during the D1-5 district competition at Anselmo-Merna High School on Monday.

Seniors Danielle Gutherless and Chevas Shaw make return trips to state.

Gutherless has competed in the state meet all four years of high school. She took first at the district Monday in serious prose and qualified as well in poetry by finishing third.

Shaw is a three-time state qualifier. He earned the D1-5 district championship in entertainment speaking and placed second in extemporaneous.

In her first year of speech, freshman Sierra Quadhamer took the district title in persuasive speaking event.

Sophomore Micah Most will compete at state in informative speaking after finishing second at the district contest.

As a team, Brady took third with 93 points behind champion Bertrand at 110 points and Callaway with 99.
